

Maria José Monteagudo Arrebola

Environmental Project Handler - UL's Environment and Sustainability

Maria is responsible for the technical analysis and execution of environmental projects for existing and developing sustainable services. She is dedicated to the importance of embedding sustainability into business strategy with strong commitment to combat climate change.

She has a master's degree in Environmental Sciences from the University of Granada, as well as MSc in Environmental Engineering and Land Planning from Polytechnic University of Milan.